EXECUTIVE ORDER 9532

CHANGING THE NAME OF THE OFFICE OF THE COORDINATOR OF INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

The name of the Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, established within the Office for Emergency Management of the Executive Office of the President by Executive Order No. 8840 of July 30, 1941, is changed to the Office of Inter-American Affairs. There shall be at the head of the Office of Inter-American Affairs a Director who shall be appointed by the President and who shall hereafter discharge and perform, under the direction and supervision of the President and in conformity with the foreign policy of the United States as defined by the Secretary of State through the Assistant Secretary of State in charge of relations with the American republics, all of the duties, powers, responsibilities and functions now discharged and performed by the Coordinator. The Director shall receive a salary at the rate of $10,000 per annum and shall be entitled to actual and necessary transportation, subsistence, and other expenses incidental to the performance of his duties. All prior Executive orders inconsistent with this order are amended accordingly. Wallace K. Harrison is hereby appointed Director of the Office of Inter-American Affairs.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9533

CHANGING THE NAME OF THE CUSTOMS PORT OF ENTRY OF MARSHFIELD, OREGON, TO COOS BAY, OREGON

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1 of the act of August 1,

1914, 38 Stat. 609, 623 (19 U.S.C. 2), it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The name of the customs port of entry of Marshfield, Oregon, in Customs Collection District Number 29 (Oregon), is changed to Coos Bay, Oregon.

2. Executive Order No. 5193, dated September 14, 1929, and Executive Order No. 5445, dated September 16, 1930, extending the limits of the customs port of Marshfield to include the municipality of North Bend, Oregon, and all points on Coos Bay in the State of Oregon, shall continue in force and effect, the name of the port "Coos Bay" being substituted for the name "Marshfield" in such orders.

3. This order shall become effective April 1, 1945.

hereof, each term defined in War Food Order No. 79, as amended, shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is set forth for such term in War Food Order No. 79, as amended.

(b) Delegation of authority. The market agent under any of the War Food Orders issued pursuant to War Food Order No. 79, as amended, and notwithstanding the provisions of any such orders, is hereby authorized:

(1) To exempt deliveries of milk, cream, and milk byproducts to industrial users, in their capacity as such users, from charges to quotas and exclude such deliveries from the computation of deliveries in the base period, and the term "industrial user" shall be construed to mean a person, as determined by the market agent, manufacturing products using as an ingredient milk, cream, or milk byproducts, and which are disposed of primarily for resale to consumers off the premises where made.

(2) To transfer quota from one handler to another, upon application and after written notice to the Director and each handler involved, whenever (i) a handler has denied service to one or more of his accounts, (ii) an account customarily rotates among handlers, inclusive of any account with a public agency or institution which is let on a bid basis, (iii) a sub-handler regularly making 50 percent or more of his deliveries under his own brand or trade name submits an application, (iv) a handler or a sub-handler applies in order to consummate a bona fide sale of business, or (v) handlers apply in order to exchange or transfer accounts.

(3) With the prior approval of the Chief, Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Marketing Services, to increase the quotas of any handler or group of handlers in any milk sales area for which he is market agent, in order to provide for the full utilization of milk in the public interest and to promote the national defense: Provided, That in the case of quotas for butterfat in cream the amount of any such increase shall be not more than 15 percent of deliveries of butterfat in cream in the base period except in May and June when any such increase shall be not more than 25 percent of deliveries of butterfat in cream in the base period.

(c) Review by the Director. A ruling by a market agent under the authority delegated herein may be reviewed by the Director upon petition or upon the initiative of the Director, and may be affirmed, modified or reversed by the Director.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., April 1, 1945.

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of prod- uct or service. In connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of their product, Chick Bed, or any other product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of said product, which advertisements represent, directly or through inference, (1) that said product constitutes a preventive of poultry diseases; (2) that the use of said product as a litter or floor covering in poultry or brooder houses will cause chicks or poultry occupying such houses to be healthy or free from disease; (3) that the use of said product is a competent and effective treatment for coccidiosis; (4) that said product is an effective germicide in use; or (5) that the use of said product will prevent poultry disease losses or increase egg production; prohibited, subject to the provision, however, as respects said first prohibition, that the same shall not be construed as preventing respondents from representing that said product used as a floor litter is absorptive, and tends to dry conditions in poultry houses, thereby aiding in the control of poultry diseases. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Chick Bed Company, Docket 5181, March 8, 1945]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1945.

In the Matter of Otto A. Kohl, an Individual, Clarke Van Meter, and Marvin M. Cobb, Individuals and Trustees, Co-partners Trading as Chick Bed Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondents, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondents and counsel for the respondents herein and Richard P. Whiteley, Assistant Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondents herein, findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondents Otto A. Kohl, Clarke Van Meter, and Marvin M. Cobb, jointly or severally, trading as Chick Bed Company or under any other name or names, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of their product, Chick Bed, or any other product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails, or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents, directly or through inference;

(1) That said product constitutes a preventive of poultry diseases: Provided, however, This paragraph shall not be construed as preventing respondents from representing that said product used as a floor litter is absorptive, and tends to dry conditions in poultry houses, thereby aiding in the control of poultry diseases;

(2) That the use of said product as a litter or floor covering in poultry or brooder houses will cause chicks or poultry occupying such houses to be healthy or free from disease;

(3) That the use of said product is a competent and effective treatment for coccidiosis;

(4) That said product is an effective germicide in use;

(5) That the use of said product will prevent poultry disease losses or increase egg production.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of said product in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[Departmental Reg. 7]

PART 82—SEAMEN'S WAGES

WAIVER OF COMPLIANCE BY CONSULAR OFFICERS WITH CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE NAVIGATION LAWS

Under the authority contained in section 501 of the act of March 27, 1942, as extended by the act of December 20, 1944 (50 U.S.C. Sup. III 635; Public Law 509, 78th Cong.) authorizing the head of each department or agency of the United States Government responsible for the administration of the navigation and vessel-inspection laws to waive compliance with such laws whenever he deems such action to be necessary in the conduct of the war, I hereby waive compliance by a consular officer with those provisions of the navigation laws requiring such officer to collect from the master of a vessel of the United States, and to pay to a seaman discharged therefrom in a foreign port, the arrears of wages and extra wages due such seaman in those cases where the seaman elects to accept, instead of full or partial payment of his wages at the time of discharge, a wage voucher signed by both the master and the seaman and evidencing the amount owed the seaman to be paid in future settlement.

This regulation shall become effective immediately upon registration in the Division of the Federal Register.

PART 111—NEGOTIATION OF TREATIES AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

AGREEMENTS BY EXCHANGE OF NOTES

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by R.S. 161 (5 U.S.C. 22) and by Executive Order 9452 of June 26, 1944 (9 F.R. 7183), as amended by Executive Orders 9514 of January 18, 1945 (10 F.R. 771) and 9521 of February 13, 1945 (10 F.R. 991), Title 22, Part 111, of the Code of Federal Regulations (Foreign Service Regulations, Chapter XI) is hereby amended as follows:

1. The part heading is changed to read as set forth above.
2. A new section is established, reading as follows:

§ 111.8 Agreements by exchange of notes. In case of an exchange of diplomatic notes constituting a definitive agreement or arrangement between the Government of the United States and a foreign government, there shall be sent to the Department, as soon as practicable after the notes have been exchanged, a certified copy of the note addressed by the diplomatic officer of the United States to the officer of the foreign government together with the original of the note addressed by the officer of the foreign government to the diplomatic officer of the United States. A secretary of the mission should certify a copy of the foreign government's note for retention in the files of the mission. Certified copies of the notes should include such letterheads as may appear on the originals and the signatures, typed to accord with the originals.

This regulation shall become effective immediately upon registration in the Division of the Federal Register.

For the Secretary of State:

[SEAL]

J. C. HOLMES,
Assistant Secretary.
