PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Transition Area; Alteration; Correction

On July 9, 1965, Federal Register Document 65-7172 was published in 30 F.R. 8676 which, in part, amended the Fort Polk, La., transition area. The effective date of this rule is 0001 e.s.t., September 16, 1965.

Paragraph 8 of the rule, amending the Fork Polk transition area contains an incorrect reference to the section of the regulations being amended, although it refers to the correct FEDERAL REGISTER citation. This ambiguity is corrected herein.

Since this change imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public producers thereon are unnecessary and the effective date of the final rule may be retained as initially adopted.

In consideration of the foregoing, paragraph 8 of Federal Register Document No. 65-7172 is amended, effective immediately, to delete the words "Section 71.171" and substitute therefor "Section 71.181."

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

PART 73—SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE

Revocation and Designation of Restricted Area

On February 2, 1965, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 1057) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering amendments to Part 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, in accordance with requests by the U.S. Air Force, that would revoke Restricted Areas R-2912A and R-2912B at Panama City, Fla., and that would designate a new area, R-2912, at Panama City.

Because of numerous objections to the proposals, the U.S. Air Force reevaluated its requirements for the proposed area. As a result, the Air Force determined that certain alterations to the request could be made in an attempt to accommodate the objections. On June 8, 1965, a supplemental notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (30 F.R. 7503) setting forth the modified Air Force proposal.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the proposed rule making through the submission of comments. Due consideration was given to all relevant matter presented.

A copy of the supplemental notice was sent to all persons objecting to the original notice in order to ensure their awareness of the modified proposal. Although two persons continued their objections, no new objections were received.

The Florida Board of Forestry based its objection on the extension of the daily time of designation beyond 1300 hours c.s.t. However, the extension of time of use resulted from an attempt by the Air Force to comply with those requirements previously stated by the Florida Board of Forestry. In response to the original notice the Board stated that it would withdraw its objections to the designation of R-2912 if "light aircraft could use the altitude either above or below the specific altitude being operated in by the Air Force and the entire space from 700 feet to 5,000 feet would not be sealed off for extended periods." Also, the withdrawal of objections was subject to the condition that in the event "a forest fire emergency develop[s] the Air Force upon the request of the Florida Forest Service would cancel any actual missions, move their planes out of the area, and allow the Forest Service to use the airspace as required to control the going forest fire." In order to accommodate the requirements of the Board, the Air Force reduced the number of altitudes to be used simultaneously and agreed to evacuate any area needed for fire fighting. The reduction in the amount of vertical airspace that will be available at any given time resulted in a requirement for a longer time of use designation to provide flexibility in scheduling operations. It was not requested for the purpose of increasing the total time for which the area will be used.

The St. Joe Paper Co. objected to the proposed extension of time of use and the restriction it would place on VFR flights and fire fighting operations, as well as the inability of the Air Force to adjust its training requirements to avoid interference with the flying requirements of others. As discussed above, an extension of the designated time of use is required to provide flexibility because of the reduced amount of vertical airspace (maximum of 2,000 feet) that can be used at any one time and does not imply an increase in the total time of use. Because of the small amount of vertical airspace that will be restricted, it has been determined that the area, as proposed, will not place excessive restrictions on VFR flight and fire fighting operations. In an effort to reduce the impact that the restricted area will have on the requirements of other users of the airspace involved, the U.S. Air Force has adjusted its training requirements so that the area is substantially smaller, vertically and horizontally, from that originally proposed.

The Federal Aviation Agency recognizes that the area will cause some inconvenience to certain civil users of the area. However, the Agency, in exercising its authority and responsibility, must give full consideration to the airspace requirements involving national defense as well as to those of civil users.

In consideration of the foregoing, Parts 71 and 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations are amended, effective 0001 c.s.t., October 14, 1965, as hereafter set forth.

1. In § 71.151 (29 F.R. 17550) Restricted Area R-2912B Panama City, Fla., is deleted.

2. In § 73.29 (29 F.R. 17739) Restricted Areas R-2912A and R-2912B are revoked.

3. In § 73.29 (29 F.R. 17739) Restricted Area R-2912 is designated as follows:

Boundaries. Beginning at latitude 30°-42'00" N., longitude 85°53'00" W.; to latitude 30°43'10" N.; longitude 85°09'35" W.; to latitude 30°08'30" N., longitude 84°37'30" W.; to latitude 29°58'15" N., longitude 84°-29'40" W.; to latitude 29°44'00" N., longitude 84°59'00" W.; to the point of beginning.

Designated altitudes. Vertical airspace limits not to exceed 2,000 consecutive feet during any given time of use from 700 feet MSL through 5,000 feet MSL.

Time of designation. From 0600 to 1800 hours c.s.t., Monday through Friday.

Controlling agency. Federal Aviation Agency, Jacksonville ARTC Center.

Using Agency. Commander, Tyndall AFB, Fla.

(Sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348))

Issued in Washington, D.C., on August 4, 1965.

Director, Air Traffic Service.

SUBCHAPTER F—AIR TRAFFIC AND GENERAL OPERATING RULES

[Reg. Docket No. 6816; Amdt. 95-131]

PART 95—IFR ALTITUDES

Miscellaneous Amendments

The purpose of this amendment to Part 95 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to make changes in the IFR altitudes at which all aircraft shall be flown over a specified route or portion thereof. These altitudes, when used in conjunction with the current changeover points for the routes or portions thereof, also assure navigational coverage that is adequate and free of frequency interference for that route or portion thereof.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interest of safety, I find that compliance with the notice and procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective within less than 30 days from publication.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 95 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective September 16, 1965, as follows:

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 56460]

PART 18—TRANSPORTATION IN BOND AND MERCHANDISE IN TRANSIT

Entry Procedure for Merchandise in Transit Through the U.S.

Section 18.20 of the Customs Regulations, which sets forth the procedure to be followed when merchandise is entered for transportation through the United States and exportation to a foreign country, does not state who may make such an entry. It appears that the practice at the ports with respect to this has not been uniform. To provide that the qualifications for making entry for transportation and exportation are the same as those prescribed in § 18.11(b) for making entry for immediate transportation without appraisement, § 18.20 is amended by adding the following at the end of paragraph (a): "The acceptance of such entries shall be subject to the requirements prescribed in § 18.11(b) of this chapter for entry of merchandise for immediate transportation without appraisement."

Commissioner of Customs.

Title 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 780—EXEMPTION APPLICABLE TO AGRICULTURE, PROCESSING OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES, AND RELATED SUBJECTS

Fish Farming

Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (3 CFR 1949–53 Comp., p. 1004), and General Order No. 45–A of the Secretary of Labor (15 F.R. 3290), I hereby amend 29 CFR Part 780 as set forth below.

The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) which require notice of proposed rule making, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date are not applicable because these are interpretative rules. I do not believe such procedures will serve a useful purpose here. Accordingly, these amendments shall become effective immediately.

1. Section 780.118 is amended to read as follows:

§ 780.118 Determination of whether unlisted activities are "farming".

Unlike the specifically enumerated operations, the phrase "farming in all its branches" does not clearly indicate its scope. In determining whether an operation constitutes "farming in all its branches", it may be necessary to consider various circumstances such as the nature and purpose of the operations of the employer, the character of the place where the employee performs his duties, the general types of activities there conducted, and the purpose and function of such activities with respect to the operations carried on by the employer. The determination may involve a consideration of the principles contained in § 780.112. For example, fish farming activities fall within the scope of the meaning of "farming in all its branches" and employees engaged in such operations would be exempt. On the other hand, so-called "bird dog" operations of the citrus fruit industry consisting of the purchase of fruit unsuitable for packing and of the transportation and sale of the fruit to canning plants do not qualify as "farming" and, consequently, employees engaged in such operations are not exempt. (See Chapman v. Durkin, 214 F. 2d 360 cert. denied 348 U.S. 897; Fort Mason Fruit Co v. Durkin, 214 F. 2d 363 cert. denied, 348 U.S. 897.) However, employees gathering the fruit at the groves are exempt because they are engaged in harvesting operations. (For exempt transportation, see Subpart E of this part.)

2. Section 780.129 is amended to read as follows:

§ 780.129 Raising of "livestock".

The meaning of the term "livestock" as used in section 3(f) is confined to the ordinary use of the word and includes only domestic animals ordinarily raised or used on farms. That Congress did not use this term in its generic sense is supported by the specific enumeration of activities such as the raising of fur-bearing animals, which would be included in the generic meaning of the word. The term includes the following animals, among others: cattle (both dairy and beef cattle), sheep, swine, horses, mules, donkeys and goats. It does not include such animals as albino and other rats, mice, guinea pigs, and hamsters, which are ordinarily used by laboratories for research purposes (Mitchell v. Maxfield, 12 WH Cases 792 (S.D. Ohio), 29 Labor Cases 69, 781). Fish are not "livestock" (Dunkley v. Erich, 158 F. 2d 1), but employees employed in propagating or farming of fish may be exempt under section 13(a)(6) of the Act as stated in § 780.118 as well as under section 13(a)(5), as explained in Part 784 of this chapter.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 4th day of August 1965.

PART 785—HOURS WORKED

Miscellaneous Amendments

Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (3 CFR 1949–53 Comp., p. 1004), and General Order No. 45–A of the Secretary of Labor (15 F.R. 3290), I hereby amend 29 CFR Part 785 as set forth below.

The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) which require notice of proposed rule making, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date are not applicable because these are interpretative rules. I do not believe such procedures will serve a useful purpose here. Accordingly, these amendments shall become effective immediately.

1. Paragraph (b) of § 785.9(b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 785.9 Statutory exceptions.

* * * * *

(b) Section 3(o) of the Fair Labor Standards Act. Section 3(o) gives statutory effect, as explained in § 785.26, to the exclusion from measured working time of certain clothes-changing and washing time at the beginning or the end of the workday by the parties to collective bargaining agreements.

2. Section 785.26 is amended to read as follows:

§ 785.26 Section 3(o) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Section 3(o) of the act provides an exception to the general rule for employees under collective bargaining agreements. This section provides for the exclusion from hours worked of time spent by an employee in changing clothes or washing at the beginning or end of each workday which was excluded from measured working time during the week involved by the express terms of or by custom or practice under a bona fide collective-bargaining agreement applicable to the particular employee. During any week in which such clothes-changing or washing time was not so excluded, it must be counted as hours worked if the changing of clothes or washing is indispensable to the performance of the employee's work or is required by law or by rules of the employer. The same would be true if the changing of clothes or washing was a preliminary or postliminary activity compensable by contract, custom, or practice as provided by section 4 of the Portal-to-Portal Act, and as discussed in § 785.9 and 29 CFR Part 790.

3. Section 785.29 is revised to read as follows:

§ 785.29 Training directly related to employee's job.

The training is directly related to the employee's job if it is designed to make the employee handle his job more effectively as distinguished from training him for another job, or to a new or additional skill. For example, a stenographer who is given a course in stenography is engaged in an activity to make her a better stenographer. Time spent in such a course given by the employer or under his auspices is hours worked. However, if the stenographer takes a course in bookkeeping, it may not be directly related to her job. Thus, the time she spends voluntarily in taking such a bookkeeping course, outside of regular working hours, need not be counted as working time. Where a training course is instituted for the bona fide purpose of preparing for advancement through upgrading the employee to a higher skill, and is not intended to make the employee more efficient in his present job, the training is not considered directly related to the employee's job even though the course incidentally improves his skill in doing his regular work.

APPENDIX D

This appendix to Part 801, which is incorporated in and made a part of section 801.402 of Part 801, sets out the bases for loss of eligibility to vote and removal from an eligibility list.

ALABAMA

A person loses his eligibility to vote in elections in the State of Alabama if:

(1) He is no longer a legal resident of the State of Alabama or the county for which he is listed (a person may not vote in a county or precinct in which he is not a resident, but when a person removes from one precinct or ward to another precinct or ward within the same county, town, or city within three months before an election, he may vote in the precinct or ward from which he so removed);

(2) He dies;

(3) He is convicted of treason, murder, arson, embezzlement, malfeasance in office, larceny, receiving stolen property, obtaining property or money under false pretenses, perjury, subornation of perjury, robbery, assault with intent to rob, burglary, forgery, bribery, assault and battery on wife, bigamy, living in adultery, sodomy, miscegenation, incest, rape, crime against nature, or any crime punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or of any infamous crime or crime involving moral turpitude, or vagrancy or being a tramp, or selling or offering to sell his vote or the vote of another, or of buying or offering to buy the vote of another, or of making or offering to make false return in any election by the people or in any primary election to procure the nomination or election of any person to any office, or of suborning any witness or registrar to secure the registration of any person as an elector, and has not been subsequently pardoned with restoration of his right to vote specifically expressed in the pardon;

(4) He is declared legally insane by a court and has not been subsequently declared legally sane or competent by a court; or

(5) He loses his citizenship in the United States or the State of Alabama.

A person loses his eligibility to vote in municipal elections only, if he is no longer a legal resident of his city or town. Loss of eligibility to vote in a municipal election because of change of such residence does not result in loss of eligibility in any other election.

LOUISIANA

A person loses his eligibility to vote in elections in the State of Louisiana if:

(1) He is no longer a legal resident of the State of Louisiana or the parish for which he is listed, however the removal from one parish to another does not deprive a person of the right to remain listed in the parish from which he has removed for the purpose of voting for district officers to be elected in a district which includes the parish to which he has removed, or for State officers, whether the parish is in the same district or not, until he has acquired the right to register or be listed and vote for such officers in the parish to which he has removed (the removal of a person from one precinct to another in the same parish does not deprive him of his right to remain listed in the parish from which he has removed until three months after the removal);

(2) He dies;

(3) He is convicted of any crime punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary and has not been subsequently pardoned with the express restoration of the franchise;

(4) He is declared legally incompetent or insane by a court and has not been subsequently restored to legal competency or sanity by a court;

(7) He becomes an inmate of any charitable institution, except the Soldiers Home and the United States Marine Hospital at Carville; or

(8) He loses his citizenship in the United States or the State of Louisiana.

A person loses his eligibility to vote in municipal elections only, if he is no longer a legal resident of his city or town. Loss of eligibility to vote in a municipal election because of change of such residence does not result in loss of eligibility in any other election.

MISSISSIPPI

A person loses his eligibility to vote in elections in the State of Mississippi if:

(1) He is no longer a legal resident of the State of Mississippi or the election district for which he is listed;

(2) He dies;

(3) He is convicted of arson, bigamy, bribery, burglary, embezzlement, forgery, obtaining money for goods under false pretenses, perjury, or theft and has not had his right to vote restored by the legislature;

(4) He is declared legally insane by a court and has not been subsequently declared legally sane or competent by a court; or

(5) He loses his citizenship in the United States.

A person loses his eligibility to vote in municipal elections only, if he (1) is no longer a legal resident of his city or town, or (2) if he has, within two years before the next municipal election, been convicted within the municipality of violating the liquor laws of the State or the municipality, or (3) is at the time of the municipal election in default for taxes due the municipality for the two preceding years. Loss of eligibility to vote in a municipal election because of change of such residence or such conviction or such default in taxes does not result in loss of eligibility in any other election.
