Title 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division,
Department of Labor

PART 870—RESTRICTION ON GARNISHMENT

Exemption of Garnishments Issued Under Laws of Virginia

On September 11, 1970, notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (35 F.R. 14368) that seven States, including the State of Virginia, had filed applications with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor for the exemption of the respective State-regulated garnishments from the provisions of section 303(a) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA). Interested persons were given 30 days in which to comment on each of the applications.

After examination of sections 34-26, 34-27, and 34-29 of the Code of Virginia, as amended and reenacted by Chapter 428 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Virginia (1970), and the regulations promulgated under section 34-29(b) by the State Commissioner of Labor and Industry, and after consideration of all relevant matters received, I have determined that the laws of the State of Virginia provide restrictions on garnishment which are substantially similar to those provided in section 303(a) of the CCPA, and that, therefore, garnishments issued under those laws should be exempted from the provisions of section 303(a).

Accordingly, pursuant to sections 305 and 306 of the CCPA (82 Stat. 164; 15 U.S.C. 1675, 1676), and to 29 CFR 870.2 and Subpart C of such part, I hereby amend § 870.57 in the manner set forth below.

Effective date. Inasmuch as this amendment grants an exemption, no delay in effective date is required by 5 U.S.C. 553. Nor would any delay serve a useful purpose here. Accordingly, this amendment shall become effective upon the date prescribed therein.

Section 870.57 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations (35 F.R. 18527) is hereby amended by adding thereto an additional paragraph, designated paragraph (b), and reads as follows:

§ 870.57 Exemptions.

(b) State of Virginia. Effective January 12, 1971, garnishments issued under the laws of the State of Virginia are exempt from the provisions of section 303(a) of the CCPA under the following additional conditions: (1) Whenever garnishments are ordered in the State of Virginia which are not deemed to be governed by section 34-29 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, and the laws of another State are applied, section 303(a) of the CCPA shall apply to such garnishments according to the provisions thereof; and (2) whenever the earnings of any individual subject to garnishment are withheld and a suspending or supersedeas bond is undertaken in the course of an appeal from a lower court decision, section 303(a) of the CCPA shall apply to the withholding of such earnings under this procedure according to the provisions thereof.

(Secs. 305, 306, 82 Stat. 164; 15 U.S.C. 1675, 1676)

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 7th day of January 1971.

ROBERT D. MORAN,
Administrator.
