

In consideration of the foregoing, the Board hereby amends Part 288 of its Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 288) effective February 1, 1976, as follows:

1. Amend § 288.7(a) by amending the third proviso following the table to read as follows:

§ 288.7 Reasonable level of compensation.

(a) * * * : Provided, however, That effective February 1, 1976, the total minimum compensation pursuant to the rates set forth in subparagraph (1) above for (i) services performed with regular jet, wide-bodied jet, and DC-8F-61/63 aircraft and (ii) Pacific interisland services performed with B-727 aircraft shall be increased by surcharges of 1.06 percent and 1.23 percent, respectively, and (iii) all other services performed with B-727 aircraft shall be decreased by 1.51 percent.¹

2. Amend § 288.7(d) by amending the proviso to subparagraphs (1) and (2) to read as follows:

(d) For Category A transportation
(1) * * *
(2) * * *

Provided, That effective February 1, 1976, the total minimum compensation pursuant to the rates specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be increased by a surcharge of 1.06 percent.

(Secs. 204, 403, 416, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended; 72 Stats. 743, 758 and 771, as amended; (49 U.S.C. 1324, 1373, 1386)).

Title 20—Employees' Benefits

CHAPTER III—SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

[Regs. No. 10, further amended]

PART 410—FEDERAL COAL MINE HEALTH AND SAFETY ACT OF 1969, AS AMENDED, TITLE IV—BLACK LUNG BENEFITS (1969.....)

Subpart B—Requirements for Entitlement; Duration of Entitlement; Filing of Claims; and Evidence

ENTITLEMENT TO BENEFITS

On October 1, 1975, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 45190) a notice of proposed rulemaking with proposed amendments to Subpart B of Regulations No. 10. The amendments provide for resumption of benefit payments to black lung widow (or sur-living divorced wife) beneficiaries whose Part B benefits were stopped because of a marriage which subsequently ended, without the need to file a new application.

¹ The surcharge provisions for services performed with B-727 aircraft will be applied to all other common-rated aircraft types.

Under section 402(e) of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act, as amended, an individual may, among other requirements, qualify as a widow of a miner for purposes of entitlement to benefits as long as she is not married. Social Security Regulations No. 10, § 410.210(b) provides, therefore, that such an individual is entitled to benefits if she is not married. In addition, § 410.211(b)(1) provides that entitlement to such benefits terminates if the widow marries. Where the marriage subsequently ended, the widow could again become entitled to Part B benefits provided she filed a claim for benefits in accordance with § 410.210(c) of the regulations.

Section 414(a) of the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act as amended, however, requires that a claim for Part B benefits must be filed by a widow by December 31, 1973, or within 6 months after the death of her husband, whichever is later. Thus, in situations where the terminating marriage ends after the above limitations, the widow is barred from becoming reentitled on the basis of a new application. However, there is no provision in the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act that requires that a widow's entitlement end when she remarries though clearly she may not be paid benefits while she is married. Further, Congress intended to treat black lung widows the same way widows are treated for benefit purposes under title II of the Social Security Act, i.e., they may requalify for payment at the end of any remarriage. The amendments to the regulations, therefore, remove the regulatory barrier to unmarried widows requalifying for Part B benefits after December 31, 1973. The amendments provide that while a widow may not receive Part B benefits while married, her marriage does not technically terminate her entitlement, so that if her marriage ends and the Social Security Administration is notified in writing to that effect, her benefit payments may thereafter be resumed. Benefits would then be payable to her beginning with the month after December 1973 in which the remarriage ends if the Social Security Administration receives written notice within 3 months of the end of the remarriage or within 3 months of _____ (final publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER), whichever is later. Otherwise, resumption of payment will begin with the month the widow provides such notice to the Social Security Administration. Resumption of benefits may be accomplished without a new application because the widow's remarriage would not terminate the entitlement established on the basis of her original application. Under the regulation in effect prior to the amendments, a surviving child may have become entitled to benefits during such remarriage. Resumption of payments to the widow will require stoppage of payment to such child. However, the amendments protect such child's rights by providing that if the widow dies or again remarries, payment to the child will be resumed. For purposes of entitlement of such child, the widow would be deemed not to be entitled during the period of any remarriage. Thus, such child could again qualify for benefit payments in his own right for months for which benefits are not payable to the widow. It would be unnecessary for the child to formally apply for resumption of payment. Further, while the widow is receiving payment, her benefit may be augmented because of the child. Appropriate notice of the proposed resumption of payment to the widow and stoppage of payment to the child must be provided to the child before his benefit payments are ended. If payment to a widow is resumed retroactively, payments already made to a child will not be affected.

Interested persons were given the opportunity to submit, within 30 days, data, views, or arguments with regard to the proposed changes. The 30-day period has passed and no comments have been received. Accordingly, the amendments have been prepared for final publication without change as set forth below.

(Secs. 411(a), 426(a), 508, Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969, as amended, 83 Stat. 793, as amended; 83 Stat. 798; 83 Stat. 803 (30 U.S.C. 921(a), 936(a), 957))

Effective date. The amendments shall be effective on February 3, 1976.

Approved: January 23, 1976.

MARJORIE LYNCH,
Acting Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Part 410 of Chapter III of Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

1. Section 410.210 is amended by revising paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 410.210 Conditions of entitlement; widow or surviving divorced wife.

(b) Is not married during her initial month of entitlement (or, for months prior to May 1972, had not remarried since the miner's death);

2. Section 410.211 is revised to read as follows:

§ 410.211 Duration of entitlement; widow or surviving divorced wife.

(a) An individual is entitled to benefits as a widow, or as a surviving divorced wife, for each month beginning with the first month in which all of the conditions of entitlement prescribed in § 410.210 are satisfied. If such individual remarries, payment of benefits ends with the month before the month of remarriage (see paragraph (b) of this section). Should the remarriage subsequently end, payment of benefits may be resumed beginning with the month after December 1973 in which the remarriage ends if the Social Security Administration receives notice in writing within 3 months of the end of such remarriage or within 3 months of February 3, 1976, whichever is later. Where such notice is not provided within the prescribed time period, resumption of payment will begin with the month the individual provides such notice to the Social Security Administration.

(b) The last month for which such individual is entitled to such benefit is the month before the month in which either of the following events first occurs:

(1) The widow or surviving divorced wife dies; or

(2) Where the individual has qualified as the widow of a miner under § 410.320 (d), she ceases to so qualify, as provided therein.

(c) Although payment of benefits to a widow or surviving divorced wife ends with the month before the month in which she marries (see paragraph (a) of this section), her entitlement is not terminated by such marriage. However, but solely for purposes of entitlement of a child under § 410.212(b), a widow is deemed not entitled to benefits in months for which she is not paid benefits because she is married.

3. Section 410.212 is amended by revising paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 410.212 Conditions of entitlement; child.

(b) A child is not entitled to benefits for any month for which a widow of a miner is entitled to benefits, except that (for purposes of entitlement of a child under this section) a widow is deemed not entitled to benefits in months for which she is not paid benefits because she is married (see § 410.211). Thus, a child may be entitled to benefits for months wherein such benefits are not payable to the widow because of marriage.

4. Section 410.213 is amended by revising the first sentence of paragraph (b), replacing the period at the end of paragraph (b) (5) with a semi-colon, and by adding a new paragraph (b) (6) to read as follows:

§ 410.213 Duration of entitlement; child.

(b) The last month for which such individual is entitled to or may be paid such benefit is the month before the month in which any one of the following events first occurs:

(5) If the child's entitlement is based on disability, the first month in no part of which such individual is under a disability;

(6) A widow's benefit payment, which was ended because of marriage, is resumed following termination of such marriage. (See § 410.211(a)). (In the month before the month in which a widow marries, payment of benefits to her ends and non-payment of such benefits continues for the duration of the marriage. Thereafter, if her remarriage ends, subject to the provisions of § 410.211 her benefit payments may be resumed. Should such widow again marry or die, payment of benefits to such child, if he is otherwise entitled, will be resumed effective with the month of such remarriage or death. In such event no action by or on behalf of such child is required for resumption of payment.)

CHAPTER I—FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

[Docket No. 75C-0242]

PART 8—COLOR ADDITIVES

D&C Green No. 6; Confirmation of Effective Date

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs is confirming the effective date of October 30, 1975, of an order concerning the use of D&C Green No. 6 in certain surgical sutures.

An order was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of September 29, 1975 (40 FR 44542), confirming the effective date of an earlier order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 25, 1975 (40 FR 18167) that, inter alia, amended § 8.4070 (21 CFR 8.4070) to provide for safe use of D&C Green No. 6 for coloring polyglycolic acid surgical sutures, including sutures for ophthalmic use. The order of September 29, 1975, in response to the filing of objections, also deleted the requirement of the April 25, 1975 order that the dyed suture shall conform in all respects to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopeia (U.S.P.) (§ 8.4070(c)(2)).

Under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 706(b), (c), and (d), 74 Stat. 399-403 (21 U.S.C. 376(b), (c), and (d))) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), notice is given that no objections or requests for hearing were filed in response to the order of September 29, 1975. Accordingly, the amendment promulgated thereby became effective on October 30, 1975.

Dated: January 27, 1976.

Title 24—Housing and Urban Development
CHAPTER X—FEDERAL INSURANCE
ADMINISTRATION

SUBCHAPTER B—NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

[Docket No. FI-842]

PART 1915—IDENTIFICATION AND MAP-
PING OF SPECIAL HAZARD AREAS

List of Communities With Special Hazard
Areas

The purpose of this notice is the identification of communities with areas of special flood or mudslide or erosion hazards in accordance with Part 1915 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations as authorized by the National Flood Insurance Program (42 U.S.C. 4001-4128). The identification of such areas is to provide guidance so that communities may adopt appropriate flood plain management measures to minimize damage caused by flood losses and to guide future construction, where practicable, away from locations which are threatened by flood hazards.

The Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 requires the purchase of flood insurance on and after March 2, 1974, as a condition of receiving any form of Federal or Federally related financial assistance for acquisition or construction purposes in an identified flood plain area having special flood hazards that is located within any community participating in the National Flood Insurance Program.

One year after the identification of the community as flood prone, the requirement applies to all identified special flood hazard areas within the United States, so that, after that date, no such financial assistance can legally be provided for acquisition and construction in these areas unless the community has entered the program. The prohibition, however, does not apply to loans by a Federally regulated, insured, supervised or approved bank prior to March 1, 1976, to finance the acquisition of a previously occupied residential dwelling.

The effective date of identification shall be 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or the date which appears in this notice, whichever is later.

This 30 day period does not supersede the statutory requirement that a community, whether or not participating in the program, be given the opportunity for a period of six months to establish that it is not seriously flood prone or that such flood hazards as may have existed have been corrected by floodworks or other flood control methods. The six months period shall be considered to begin 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER or the effective date of the Flood Hazard Boundary Map, whichever is later. Similarly, the one year period a community has to enter the program under Section 201(c) of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 shall be considered to begin 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER or the effective date of the Flood Hazard Boundary Map, whichever is later.

Where several dates appear in the column set forth below marked Effective Date of Identification, the first date is the date of initial identification, and all other dates represent modification by additions or deletions to identified areas with special hazards.

Accordingly, § 1915.3 is amended by adding in alphabetical sequence a new entry to the table, which entry reads as follows:

§ 1915.3 List of communities with special hazard areas (FHBM's in effect).
