Presidential Determination No. 80-17 of May 1, 1980

Determination pursuant to Section 207(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (INA) concerning the admission and adjustment of status of refugees

Memorandum for the Secretary of State

Pursuant to Section 207(a) of the INA, and in accordance with Section 204(d)(1) of Public Law 96-212 (94 Stat. 109), I hereby determine, after appropriate Congressional consultation, that the admission of 231,700 refugees to the United States during Fiscal Year 1980 is justified by humanitarian concerns or is otherwise in the national interest. The admission of 231,700 refugees includes approximately 114,284 refugees already admitted during the first half of the fiscal year, and approximately 117,416 during the second half of the year. I also determine that providing an additional 2,500 refugee admission numbers to be available for adjustment of status, in accordance with Section 209(b) of the INA, of up to 2,500 persons previously granted asylum in the United States, is justified by humanitarian concerns or is otherwise in the national interest.

Pursuant to Section 207(a)(3) of the INA, I determine, after appropriate Congressional consultation, that these refugee admission numbers shall be allocated as follows:

REFUGEE ADMISSIONS FY 1980

Area of origin	Approximate number admitted first half of fiscal year	Approximate number to be admitted remainder of fiscal year	Total number of admissions for FY 1980
Asia			169,200
Indochinese	84,000	84,000	168,000
Other	600	600	1,200
Soviet Union	18,000	15,000	33,000
Eastern Europe	2,000	3,000	5,000
Middle East	500	2,000	2,500
Latin America			20,500
Cubans	9,000	10,500	19,500
Other	64	936	1,000
Africa	120	1,380	1,500
Sub-total	114,284	117,416	231,700
Asylum Status Adjustments			2,500
Total			234,200

Pursuant to Section 101(a)(42)(B) of the INA, I hereby specify, after appropriate Congressional consultation, that special circumstances exist such that, for the purposes of admission under the limits established in this Determination, the following persons, if they otherwise qualify for admission, may be considered refugees of special humanitarian concern to the United States even though they are still within their countries of nationality or habitual residence:

persons in Vietnam with past or present ties to the United States, present and former political prisoners and their family members in Argentina, present and former political prisoners and their family members and persons in Cuba with relatives in the United States.

The Secretary of State is requested to inform the appropriate committees of the Congress of these determinations.

This memorandum shall be published in the Federal Register.
