

rule, and the procedures used to implement the rule. In an exchange of correspondence beginning with a May 27, 1980, letter from the Joint Committee, the Office of Surface Mining and the Joint Committee discussed the possibility of deferring the effective date of the rule pending public comment. After consideration of the Joint Committee's position, OSM declined to suspend the effective date of the rule. (Letter from Walter Heine, Director, OSM, to the Joint Committee, June 12, 1980). It did so primarily because it had not received any technical information which showed that the interpretive rule was improper, or that it was inconsistent with the literature published at the time the substantive regulation was adopted.

The correspondence does reflect, however, a concern on the part of the Joint AMC/NCA Committee with the procedures used to promulgate the rule and its continued desire to have an opportunity to have formal public comment on the rule. As previously explained in this notice, OSM does not believe that public comment on this rule was legally required. In keeping with its general commitment to seeking public involvement to the fullest possible, OSM has nonetheless decided to hold a formal public comment period on the interpretive rule. The purpose of this comment period is to allow expanded discussions between concerned members of the public and OSM concerning the interpretive regulation. At the close of the public comment period, OSM will decide whether to suspend the interpretive rule, keep the interpretive rule in its current form, or change or propose in some way changes to the substantive rule issued in 1979. The interpretive rule remains in effect until further notice and compliance with the rule is required in the interim. This notice should not be construed, in any way, to be a weakening of OSM's belief that the interpretive rule was properly issued both procedurally and substantively.

The Office of Surface Mining specifically desires the comments of those companies who are directly affected by the interpretive rule. It is particularly interested in determining whether the interpretive rule is perceived as causing operational difficulties, or posing other problems which would unnecessarily reduce productivity or increase costs.

The Department of Interior has determined that this document is not a significant rule and does not require a regulatory analysis under Executive Order 12044 and 43 CFR Part 14. The Department of Interior has also determined that opening the interpretive rule for comment does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Dated: July 11, 1980.

Carl C. Close,

Assistant Director, Office of Surface Mining, State and Federal Programs.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY32 CFR Part 1900*Public Access to Documents and Records and Declassification Requests

AGENCY: Central Intelligence Agency.
ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) amends its regulations relating to public access to documents and records by clarifying policies and procedures regarding historical research requests. Based upon the Agency's experience in handling requests from historical researchers for access to classified information held in the file systems, a modification of the regulation is necessary. The amendment will allow the CIA to process such requests with less burden upon its limited resources. This document also corrects the text by setting forth language which was inadvertently omitted when first promulgated.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 18, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Charles E. Savige, Phone: (703) 351-5659.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This final rule was promulgated as a proposed rule on May 6, 1980, and comments were invited. On May 21, 1980, this Agency received a memorandum from the Director, Information Security Oversight Office, recommending the deletion of the word "rare" in line 11 of the promulgation. This recommendation has been accepted and the word is deleted. There were no other comments received.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 1900, Chapter XIX of Title 32, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by revising paragraph (a) of 1900.61 to read as follows:

§ 1900.61 Access for historical research.

(a) Any person engaged in a historical research project may submit a request, in writing, to the Coordinator to be given access to information classified pursuant to an Executive order for purposes of that research. Any such request shall indicate the nature, purpose, and scope of the research project. It is the policy of the Agency to consider applications for historical research privileges only in those instances where the researcher's needs cannot be satisfied through requests for access to reasonably described records.

This amendment to the rules and regulations of the Central Intelligence Agency is adopted under the authority of Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended (50 U.S.C. 403), the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended (50 U.S.C. 403a et seq.), Executive Order 12065 (3CFR, 1978 Comp., p. 190), the Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), and the Federal Records Management Amendments of 1978 (Sec. 4, Pub. L. 94-575, 90 Stat. 2723).

BILLING CODE 6560-01-M

40 CFR Part 81

[FRL-1532-5]

Designation of Areas for Air Quality Planning Purposes; Attainment Status Designations: Illinois

AGENCY: U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This rulemaking changes the State attainment status relative to the carbon monoxide (CO) National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) for a portion of the City of Moline located in Rock Island County, Illinois. On November 15, 1979, a redesignation of this area from attainment to nonattainment of the primary and secondary CO NAAQS was proposed in the Federal Register (44 FR 65791), and public comment was solicited.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 18, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Judy Kertcher, Regulatory Analysis Section, Air Programs Branch, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, 230 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604 (312) 886-6038.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to section 107(d) of the Clean Air Act (ACT), the State of Illinois designated areas within the State as attainment or nonattainment for the NAAQS. Notice of these designations was published in the Federal Register on March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8962) and October 5, 1978 (43 FR 45993). Rock Island County, Illinois was designated as an attainment area for CO (43 FR 8962, 8990). Under section 107(d)(5) of the Act, an area's designation is subject to revision whenever sufficient data becomes available to warrant such redesignation.

On July 19, 1979, the Illinois EPA submitted a recommendation to redesignate a portion of Rock Island County as a nonattainment area for carbon monoxide. The portion recommended for redesignation was an area within the City of Moline bounded by and including Seventh Avenue from 12th Street to 22nd Street on the southeast; 23rd Street from 7th Avenue to 3rd Avenue and continuing along that line to the Mississippi River on the northeast; 12th Street from 7th Avenue to 3rd Avenue and continuing along that line to the Mississippi River on the southwest; the Mississippi River Bank from the 12th Street alignment to the 23rd Street alignment on the northwest.

IEPA's recommendation was based upon the occurrence in this area of violations of the maximum allowable 8-hour average CO concentration of 9.0 parts per million.

On November 15, 1979, (44 FR 65791), USEPA proposed approval of the redesignation and invited public comment. Two individuals submitted comments on the proposed changes. This section of the notice discusses the comments received and USEPA's response.

Public Comment: Both individuals commented that the data upon which the designation was based might not be representative of the area. Only one monitor showing violations is located in the Central Business District (CBD). The downtown includes both business and industrial areas, and the traffic patterns in other areas of the CBD may differ from those near the monitor. Further, construction work in the downtown area during 1977-1980 has caused the disruption of traffic signal interconnections, and altered traffic flow.

USEPA Response: Hotspot Analysis of the Moline CBD indicates that approximately fourteen of the intersections in the downtown area have a potential to be associated with violations of the 8-hour average CO NAAQS. Several of the intersections in the area indicated a higher potential for violation than the monitored intersection. Construction projects and the resultant disruption of traffic flow patterns at the monitored intersection may contribute to the high monitor readings. Since these impacts have occurred over a long period of time they must be taken into account. Based on the hotspot analysis, the analysis of traffic patterns in Moline and the large average daily traffic counts obtained throughout the Moline CBD, USEPA believes the nonattainment designation of the Moline CBD is justified.

Public Comment: Both commentors thought that the stop-and-go traffic in the vicinity of the monitor might have caused non-representative high readings.

USEPA Response: As discussed above, USEPA does not agree that the readings are not representative. Further, the presence of stop and go traffic is not grounds for the rejection of the nonattainment designation.

USEPA Final Determination: After reviewing the State's recommendation, the monitored data and the public comments received, USEPA has determined that the nonattainment designation of a portion of the City of Moline is justified. Therefore, pursuant to section 107 of the Clean Air Act, USEPA approves the redesignation submitted by Illinois as proposed in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking on November 15, 1979 at 44 FR 65791. The redesignation is effective (30 days from publication). The nonattainment designation requires a revision to the Illinois State Implementation Plan within 9 months of final USEPA action on the designation change. The plan revision should contain an assessment of the causes of the nonattainment plus strategies and enforceable regulations adequate to attain the NAAQS by the statutory attainment date specified in section 172(a) of the Act.

USEPA has determined that this document is not a significant regulation and does not require preparation of a regulatory analysis under Executive Order 12044 (43 FR 12661).

Dated: July 11, 1980.

Douglas Costle,
Administrator.
