decision will be made within 60 days as to whether the requested information may be declassified and, if so, made available to the requestor. If the information may not be released in whole or in part, the requestor will be given a brief statement as to the reasons for denial, and a notice of the right to appeal the determination to the DOL Classification Review Committee, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management, Washington, DC 20210. The requestor is to be told that such an appeal must be filed with the DOL within 60 days.

(d) Appeals procedure. The DOL Classification Review Committee will review and act within 30 days on all applications and appeals for the declassification of information. The Committee is authorized to overrule on behalf of the Secretary, Agency determinations in whole or in part, when it decides that continued protection is not required. It will notify the requestor of the declassification and provide the information. If the Committee determines that continued classification is required, it will promply notify the requestor and provide the reasons for the determination.

(e) Burden of proof. In evaluating requests for declassification the DOL Classification Review Committee will require the DOL office having jurisdiction over the document to prove that continued classification is warranted.

(f) Fees. If the request requires a service for which fair and equitable fees may be charged pursuant to Title 5 of the Independent Office Appropriation Act, 31 U.S.C. 483a (1976), the requestor will be notified and charged.

Subpart C—Transmission of Classified Information

§ 14.20 Dissemination to individuals and firms outside the executive branch.

Request for classified information received from sources outside the executive branch of the Federal Government, provided the information has been originated by the DOL, will be honored in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) Top Secret Information. All requests for Top Secret information by an individual or firm outside the executive branch must be referred promptly to the OASAM for consideration on an individual basis.

(b) Secret and Confidential Information. Subject to the restrictions below, Secret or Confidential information may be furnished to an individual or firm outside the executive branch if the action furthers the official program of the organization unit in which the information originated. The official furnishing such information must ensure that the individuals to whom the information is to be furnished have the appropriate DOL clearance, or at least clearance for the same or higher classification for another Federal department, or outside agency whose security clearances are acceptable to the DOL. The official must also ensure that the person to whom the classified information is being furnished possess the proper facilities for safeguarding such information. No Secret or Confidential information may be furnished to an individual or firm outside the executive branch without written concurrence from the primary organizational unit head or the Security Officer of that unit.

(c) Unauthorized knowledge of classified information. Upon receipt of a request for classified information which raised a suspicion that an individual or organization outside the executive branch has unauthorized knowledge of the existence of Confidential, Secret, or Top Secret information, a report providing all available details must be immediately submitted to the DOL Document Security Officer for appropriate action and disposition.

(d) Requests from outside the United States. All requests from outside the United States for Top Secret, Secret or Confidential information, except those received from foreign offices of the primary organizational unit or from U.S. embassies or similar missions, will be referred to the Deputy Under Secretary for International Affairs.

(e) Access by historical researchers. Individuals outside the executive branch engaged in historical research may be authorized access to classified information over which the DOL has jurisdiction provided:

(1) The research and need for access conform to the requirements of Section 4-3 of Executive Order 12356.

(2) The information requested is reasonably accessible and can be located and compiled with a reasonable amount of effort.

(3) The researcher agrees to safeguard the information in a manner consistent with E.O. 12356 and directives thereunder.

(4) The researcher agrees to a review of the notes and manuscript to determine that no classified information is contained therein.

Authorization for access is valid for the period required but no longer than two years from the date of issuance unless it is renewed under the conditions and regulations governing its original authorization.

(f) Access by former presidential appointees. Individuals who have previously occupied policymaking positions to which they were appointed by the President may be authorized access to classified information which they originated, reviewed, signed, or received while in public office. Upon request, information identified by such individuals will be reviewed for declassification in accordance with the provisions of these regulations.

§ 14.21 Release of classified information to foreign governments.

National security information will be released to foreign governments in accordance with the criteria and procedures stated in the President's Directive entitled "Basic Policy Governing the Release of Classified Defense Information to Foreign Governments" dated September 25, 1985. All requests for the release of such information will be referred to the Deputy Under Secretary for International Affairs.

§ 14.22 Availability of classified information to persons not employed by the Department of Labor.

(a) Approval for access. Access to classified information in the possession or custody of the primary organizational units of the Department by individuals who are not employees of the executive branch shall be approved in advance by the DOL Document Security Officer.

(b) Access to Top Secret Material. Access to Top Secret Information within the primary organizational units of the DOL by employees of other Federal agencies must be approved in advance by the Top Secret Control Officer of the primary organizational unit.

(c) Access to Secret and Confidential Information. Secret and Confidential information may be made available to properly cleared employees of other Federal departments or outside agencies if authorized by the primary organizational units having custody of the information.

Signed at Washington, DC on this December 10, 1985.

Thomas C. Komarek,

Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management.

Government Losses in Shipment Act, Claims and Declaration of Valuables; Technical Amendments

AGENCY: Bureau of the Public Debt, Fiscal Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule; technical amendments.

SUMMARY: The Bureau intends to publish in the Federal Register notice of proposed rulemaking concerning Book-entry Treasury Bonds, Notes and Bills and regulations for offering these securities. These new and proposed regulations will be placed in 31 CFR Parts 357 and 358 because the subject matter of the preceding Parts is similar. Therefore, it is necessary to move the currently existing Parts 357 and 358. Also, the Bureau's proper mailing address should be added to the newly redesignated Parts.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 17, 1985.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sandy Dyson, Attorney-Advisor, Office of the Chief Counsel, Bureau of the Public Debt, (202) 376-4320.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Executive Order 12291

Because this document relates to agency management it is not subject to Executive Order 12291. Accordingly, a regulatory impact analysis is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act, Pub. L. 96-511, 94 Stat. 2812 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) does not apply to this rule because it does not contain information collection requirements which necessitate approval by the Office of Management and Budget.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this document, it is not subject to the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601).

Administrative Procedure Act

This regulation relates to agency management and is therefore not subject to the notice and public comment procedures and the delayed effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2)).

Accordingly, 31 CFR, Chapter II, Subchapter B, is amended as follows:

1. The authority citation for newly redesignated Part 361 continues to read:

Authority: Sec. 6, 50 Stat. 480; 40 U.S.C. 728.

2. The authority citation for newly redesignated Part 362 continues to read:

Authority: Secs. 6, 7, 50 Stat. 480; 40 U.S.C. 728, 729.

3. Part 357—Claims Pursuant to the Government Losses in Shipment Act, and Part 358—Declaration of Valuables Under the Government Losses in Shipment Act, are redesignated as Parts 361 and 362 respectively.

4. In newly redesignated §§ 361.7 and 361.8 add ", Division of Financial Management, Room 446, E Street Building, Washington, DC 20239-0001." after "Bureau of the Public Debt".

Gerald Murphy,

Acting Fiscal Assistant Secretary.

[APD 2800.12 CHGE 22]

General Services Administration Acquisition Regulation; Revised GSA Forms

AGENCY: Office of Acquisition Policy, GSA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The General Services Administration Acquisition Regulation (GSAR), Chapter 5 is amended to revise section 513.505-2 to provide for the use of GSA Form 1458, Motor Vehicle Shop Work Order, Repair and Purchase Order; to revise section 553.173(c) to delete GSA Form 1056, Notice of Shipment and GSA Form 3433, Marking and Shipping Instructions, which have been incorporated in the revised GSA Form 3186, Order for Supplies or Services, and to add GSA Form 1458; to revise section 553.270-1 to prescribe GSA Form 3518, Representation and Certification (Acquisition of Leasehold Interests in Real Property); to revise section 553.270-2 to prescribe GSA Form 3516, Solicitation Provisions (Acquisition of Leasehold Interests in Real Property); to revise section 553.270-3 to prescribe GSA Form 3517, General Clauses (Acquisition of Leasehold Interests in Real Property); to revise section 553.272 to provide for the use of GSA Form 1458; to revise section 553.274 to require Federal Supply Service Central Office (FSS) and regional contracting activities to use GSA Form 1602, Notice Concerning Solicitation; to delete section 553.276; and to illustrate the revised GSA forms. The intended effect is to update the regulatory coverage on the use of various GSA forms.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 6, 1985.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Ida Ustad, Office of GSA Acquisition Policy and Regulations (VP), (202) 523-4754.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This rule will not have a significant cost or administrative impact on contractors or offerors. Therefore, it was not published for public comment in the Federal Register.

The Director, Office of Management and Budget (OMB), by memorandum dated December 14, 1984, exempted certain agency procurement regulations from Executive Order 12291. The exemption applies to this rule. The General Services Administration (GSA) certifies that this document will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). Various GSA Forms which are already in use have been revised to conform to revised regulatory requirements. The information collection requirements contained in this rule have been approved by OMB under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

8. Section 553.272 is revised to read as follows:

§ 553.272 Purchase/Delivery orders.

Except as otherwise indicated, each of the following forms is designed for use as a purchase order (small purchases) with applicable provisions and clauses printed on the reverse of the form, or as a delivery order to place orders under established contracts.

(a) The GSA Form 300, Order for Supplies or Services, is used for purchases payable through the National Electronic Accounting and Reporting (NEAR) System. This form may also be used in other situations, unless a specific form is prescribed for use. GSA Form 300–A, Order for Supplies or Services (Continuation), is available for use with the GSA Form 300. Pending revision of the April 1984 edition of the GSA Form 300, Block 8A of the form may be revised to delete the sentence which reads as follows: "This purchase is negotiated under the authority of:"

(b) The GSA Form 1458, Motor Vehicle Shop Work Order, Repair and Purchase Order, is used to procure services and/or repairs of GSA motor pool vehicles.

(c) The GSA Form 3186, Order for Supplies or Services, is used to make purchases through the FSS–19 system.

(d) The GSA Form 8002, Motor Vehicle Delivery Order, is used to order motor vehicles. This form is not intended for use as a purchase order for small purchases, and does not include provisions and clauses on the reverse.

9. Section 553.274 is revised to read as follows:

GSA Form 1602, Notice Concerning Solicitation, must be used by FSS Central Office and regional contracting offices and may be used by other offices to: (a) Indicate the solicitation number; (b) Describe the type of contract, the duration of the contract, and the identity of the supplies or services being procured; (c) Direct the attention of prospective offerors to special requirements which, if overlooked, may result in rejection of the offer; (d) Highlight significant changes from previous solicitations covering the same commodity or service; and (e) Include other special notices, as appropriate.

§ 553.276 [Removed]

10. Section 553.276 is removed.

Dated: December 6, 1985.
