DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Customs Service

19 CFR Part 178

[T.D. 85-53]

OMB Approval of Information Collections in Customs Regulations

AGENCY: Customs Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends the Customs Regulations by setting forth a list of information collections contained in the regulations and displaying the control number assigned by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 requires federal agencies to obtain OMB clearance for information collections that the agency imposes on the public. This listing furnishes a way for the public to determine that the paperwork burdens imposed by Customs have been approved by OMB and comply with the Paperwork Reduction Act.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kathleen Katchmark, Paperwork Management Staff, U.S. Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20229 (202-566-7559).

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 26, 1985.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (Pub. L. 96-511, 94 Stat. 2812, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) establishes policies and procedures for controlling paperwork burdens imposed on the public by federal agencies. Pursuant to this Act, by a document published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1983 (48 FR 13666) the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) promulgated rules implementing the Act. The OMB rules are codified at 5 CFR Part 1320 et seq.

One aspect of OMB's oversight function is the review and approval of information collections. Generally, information collections include any requirement or request for persons to obtain, maintain, retain, report, or publicly disclose information. OMB analyzes such requests for three basic requirements. First, the collection of information must be necessary for the proper performance of the agency functions. Second, the request for information or records must not duplicate information otherwise accessible to the agency. Third, the information must have practical utility.

When an information collection is approved by OMB, it is issued a control number. The control number provides a simple and effective way to inform the public that a particular information collection has been approved by OMB pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act.

This document amends the Customs Regulations in 19 CFR Chapter I by adding a new Part 178 which lists the information collections contained in the regulations and their respective control numbers as assigned by OMB.

Part 178 will be amended to reflect the approval of new information collections as well as the deletion of collections no longer found to be necessary.

Executive Order 12291, Regulatory Flexibility Act, Inapplicability of Public Notice Requirement

Although this document creates a new part in the Customs Regulations contained in 19 CFR Chapter I, it is merely a listing of the status of other already published regulations. Therefore, the requirements of E.O. 12291, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, and the notice and public comment and delayed effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 552) are not applicable to this document.

Drafting Information

The principal author of this document was John E. Doyle, Regulations Control Branch, Office of Regulations and Rulings, U.S. Customs Service. However, personnel from other Customs offices participated in its development.

Chapter I of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR Chapter I), is amended by adding a new part, Part 178, titled, "Approval of Information Collection Requirements", to read as follows:

PART 178—APPROVAL OF INFORMATION COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

§ 178.1 Purpose.

This part sets forth the control numbers assigned to information collections of the Customs Service by the Office of Management and Budget pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980, Pub. L. 96-511. This part complies with the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980, and implements regulations promulgated by the Office of Management and Budget, (5 CFR 1320.7(f)(2), 1320.12(d) and 1320.13(j)) which require that agencies display a current control number assigned by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget for each agency information collection.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

20 CFR Parts 629 and 630

Job Training Partnership Act; Maximum and Minimum Limitations on Expenditures

AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Final Interpretations.

SUMMARY: On September 18, 1984, the Employment and Training Administration of the Department of Labor published in the Federal Register its interpretation of a number of minimum and maximum limitations on expenditures contained in the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA). The Department indicated that it would accept comments on its interpretations through October 18, 1984. Outlined below are the comments received and the Department's response to such comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Robert N. Colombo. Telephone: 202-376-6093.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A total of 32 comment letters was received. Of these, 19 were from 16 different States, and 13 were from local service delivery areas (SDAs), private industry councils (PICs) and community agencies. The comments covered six major concerns, as well as a number of individual areas. Following is a listing of each concern, the Department's response and our explanation for the response.

Departmental Comment

It should be noted that, in publishing its interpretations, the Department was issuing policy only in terms of reviewing compliance with regard to the minimum and maximum limitations on expenditures. In no way were the interpretations intended to suggest that funds should be expended over a protracted period of time, nor do they alter the fact that the funds are appropiated by the Congress for use in a particular program year. While the Act provides that each year's appropriation may be expended over a three-year period, the Congress generally expects that funds be utilized effectively during the year for which the funds are appropriated. Nothing in these interpretations should be construed to suggest otherwise.

Concerns and Responses

1. Measuring compliance on the basis of allotments versus some other measurement, such as expenditures.

Response. The Department feels that using allotments as the basis for determining compliance with the minimum and maximum limitations on expenditures contained in the Act is consistent both with the language and the intent of the Act.

The Act limits the amount of funds that may be used for the costs of administration to not more than 15 percent of the funds available for any fiscal year (read "program year") (Section 108(a)). Not more than 30 percent of the funds available for any fiscal (program) year may be expended for the combined costs of administration and participant support, pursuant to Section 108(b), unless a waiver has been granted for the costs of participant support (Section 108(c)). The JTPA regulations, at 20 CFR 629.39(c)(1), restate the requirement to make it clear that not less than 70 percent of the funds may be expended for the costs of training, with limited specified exceptions.

Section 203(b)(1) establishes the requirement that 40 percent of the funds provided in accordance with the job training plan shall be expended to provide services to eligible youth, except that the level of service may be adjusted (Section 203(b)(2)). Section 104(a) specifies that the job training plan is for a period of two program years.

The Act further provides that funds are available for expenditure only during a three-year period covering the
