OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

5 CFR Part 534

Performance Awards in the Senior Executive Service

AGENCY: Office of Personnel
Management.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: OPM is issuing final regulations to require that Senior Executive Service (SES) Performance Review Boards be composed of a majority of career SES members when making recommendations on performance awards for career SES appointees. This will make the membership requirement the same as for when the Boards make recommendations on performance appraisals of career SES appointees.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 16, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Neal Harwood, (202) 632-4486.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 29, 1989, OPM published proposed regulations (54 FR 35654) providing that SES Performance Review Boards must be composed of a majority of career SES members when making recommendations on performance awards for career SES appointees, unless OPM determines that there exists an insufficient number of career members available to comply with the requirement. The comment period, which was 30 days from the date of publication, ended on September 28, 1989. No comments were received.

In the meantime, Congress in section 625(a) of the FY 1990 Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriations bill (H.R. 2989) amended 5 U.S.C. 5384(c) to place a similar requirement in statute. The President signed the bill on November 3, 1989 (Pub. L. 101-136). The amendment to 5

U.S.C. 5384(c) was effective upon signature.

Since the provisions of the proposed regulations and section 625(a) of Public Law 101-136 are the same, and since there were no comments on the proposed regulations, the final regulations are issued without change. It should be noted that § 430.307(d) of title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations already provides that Performance Review Boards must contain a majority of career SES members when making recommendations on performance appraisals for career SES appointees.

Pursuant to section 553(d) of title 5, United States Code, the Director finds that good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days, in order to cover Performance Review Boards that are making recommendations on SES performance awards for career appointees in agencies where the performance appraisal period ended at the end of FY 1989.

E.O. 12291. Federal Regulation

I have determined that this is not a major rule as defined under Section 1(b) of E.O. 12291, Federal Regulation.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it deals with the SES employees of the Federal Government.

Accordingly, OPM is amending 5 CFR part 534 as follows:

PART 534—PAY UNDER OTHER SYSTEMS

1. The authority for part 534 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 1104, 5351, 5352, 5353, 5361, 5383, 5384, 5385, and 5541.

2. The heading for subpart D is revised and § 534.403(a) is revised to read as follows:

Subpart D—Pay and Performance Awards Under the Senior Executive Service

§ 534.403 Performance awards.

(a) This section covers the payment of performance awards to career appointees in the Senior Executive Service (SES).

(1) To be eligible for an award, the appointee's most recent performance rating of record under part 430, subpart C, of this chapter must have been "Fully Successful" or higher.

(2) When making recommendations on performance awards, more than one-half of the membership of a Performance Review Board must be career SES appointees. The only exception is if OPM has determined under § 430.307(d) of this chapter that the Board does not have to have a majority of career members when making recommendations on performance appraisals of career appointees because there exists an insufficient number of career appointees.

BILLING CODE 6325-01-M

5 CFR Part 550

Pay Differentials

AGENCY: Office of Personnel
Management.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule authorizes a hazard/physical hardship pay differential of 25 percent to employees who are working in undeveloped tropical jungle regions outside the continental United States and who are exposed to unusual physical hardships and hazards. This rule is required by Public Law 89-512, which established hazardous duty pay for General Schedule employees.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 15, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Clarence Mathews (202) 632-7858.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 14, 1989, OPM published an interim rule in the Federal Register (54 FR 25223) which established a hazard/physical hardship pay differential category for employees who are working in undeveloped tropical jungle regions outside the continental United States and who are exposed to unusual physical hardships such as high heat and humidity, and unusual hazards such as poisonous snakes and insects, diseases and dangerous terrain. The pay differential was set at 25 percent, and the interim rule was effective as of June 14, 1989.

OPM received one written response to the interim rule from the Department of Agriculture concerning the definition of the term "undeveloped tropical jungle regions." Agriculture recommended that the term be changed to "natural tropical forests."

After careful consideration of the comments from the Department of Agriculture, OPM has decided not to change or amend the interim rule. We believe that the term "undeveloped tropical jungle regions" is more appropriate to describe the tropical environment that the requesting Agency wants covered, is more easily defined, and is more clearly understood by the GS/GM personnel administering or affected by the policy.

E.O. 12291, Federal Regulation

I have determined that this is not a major rule as defined under section 1(b) of E.O. 12291, Federal Regulation.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that these regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because they are changes which will affect only employees of the Federal Government.

PART 550—PAY ADMINISTRATION (GENERAL)

Accordingly, the interim rule amending Appendix A to subpart I, part 550, 5 CFR, that was published in 54 FR 25223 on June 14, 1989, is adopted as final without change.

RIN 3206-AB42

Processing Garnishment Orders for Child Support and/or Alimony

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is amending its regulations concerning the processing of garnishment orders for child support and/or alimony. The amendments reflect a fundamental change concerning the garnishment for attorney fees, interest, and court costs. The amendments also revise the garnishment regulations in response to the establishment of the Thrift Savings Fund. In addition, the list of designated agents (Appendix A) has been brought up to date.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 15, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Murray M. Meeker, (202) 632-5090.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: These amendments follow two separate notices of proposed rulemaking. The first notice of proposed rulemaking was published on April 28, 1986 (51 FR 15787) to implement a revised Justice Department interpretation of the statutory provisions concerning the garnishment for attorney fees. OPM was initially advised of the revised statutory interpretation by the Civil Division of the Justice Department. Subsequent to the notice of proposed rulemaking, OPM received additional guidance in an opinion issued by the Office of Legal Counsel (OLC) of the Justice Department. In addition to the OLC opinion, OPM received five written substantive comments to the 1986 notice: One comment was received from an employee organization; one comment was received from a Federal agency; one comment was received from a State agency; the fourth comment was received from an official of a State court; and the fifth amendment was received from a family support enforcement organization.

The employee organization's letter stated as follows:

Attorney's fees, interest and court costs are part and parcel of the basic amount(s) awarded as child support payment. Hence, a plaintiff who has successfully proven his (her) right to child support, should have the remedy to recover these items through the same garnishment process that is available for recovering the amount(s) awarded as child support. For this reason, we support the change.

It must be noted that this statement reflects a critical misunderstanding of the amendments. In fact, the amendments provide that attorney fees, interest, and court costs will only be subject to garnishment if they are considered to be actual child support or alimony rather than amounts to be garnished in addition to the child support or alimony. Because of OPM's concern that the proposed changes may have been misunderstood by a significant number of affected persons, OPM has further revised the definitions of child support and alimony in 5 CFR 581.102(d) and (e). In addition, OPM has added a new section, 5 CFR 581.307, that provides express clarification and guidance concerning the processing of legal process that includes an award of attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs.

The employee organization also suggested that OPM further amend the proposed definition of "legal obligation" in 5 CFR 581.102. However, the suggested change would have defeated the purpose of the amendment which is to clarify that there are differences between jurisdictions concerning the garnishment of current (rather than past due) alimony. To say that a "legal obligation" must include current as well as past due alimony and/or child support debts as requested by the employee organization would have been erroneous and contrary to our purpose.

The second comment was from a Federal agency. OPM has adopted the Federal agency's suggestion that the statement of purpose in 5 CFR 581.101 and the definition of "legal process" in 5 CFR 581.102(f) be amended. The Federal agency also suggested that OPM revise 5 CFR 581.306(c) to broaden the information that would be provided when Federal employee obligors separate from their Federal employment. OPM has adopted this suggestion. However, two of the Federal agency's suggestions concerned amendments to 5 CFR 581.301 were not adopted. The Federal agency suggested the establishment of shorter time limits for complying with legal process. OPM believes that this suggestion is contrary to the statutory time limits already provided in 42 U.S.C. 659(d).

The Federal agency also suggested that a sentence be added to § 581.301 to expressly state that legal process for child support and/or alimony be given priority "over any other legal process under State law against the same wages." However, except for the Postal Service and a relatively small number of other Federal entities, the Federal Government is not authorized under Federal law to comply with "other legal process [issued] under State law." Thus, we believe that the suggestion would have resulted in more confusion than assistance. It should also be noted that Title 6 (Pay, Leave, and Allowances) of the General Accounting Office's Manual for Guidance of Federal Agencies already includes an order of precedence for disbursement of pay.

The third comment was from a State agency. The State agency correctly discerned that the amendment would limit the circumstances in which attorneys who represent former spouses and dependent children would be able to collect their fees, and that as a consequence it might be more difficult for former spouses and children to find adequate legal representation. However, the State agency expressed support for the amendment because "it should allow more children and/or former spouses to receive the full amount of support," unreduced—in instances where the maximum amount is being garnished—by attorney fees.

The fourth comment was received from a State court probation department official who expressed opposition to the proposal, not because it might make it more difficult for former spouses and dependent children to obtain legal counsel, but because of the fear that the amendment would result in an increase in the number of court orders that awarded attorney fees as alimony or child support and a concomitant fear that courts would more frequently order enforcement of such payments through a probation department, thereby increasing the workload of State court probation departments and undercutting the effectiveness of the child support enforcement program.

OPM would respond only that the Federal statutory garnishment provisions (42 U.S.C. 662(b) and (c)) expressly refer to the recovery of attorney fees, and that OPM has been directed to implement these provisions (42 U.S.C. 661(a)(1) and Executive Order No. 12105 (1978)). OPM is, therefore, obligated to provide guidance to the executive branch concerning the processing of legal process, including the circumstances under which a Federal agency may withhold from a Federal employee obligor's salary an amount for attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs. While it is anticipated that the amendment will greatly reduce the number of attorney fee awards that will be honored by the Federal Government, OPM is unable to predict how the amendment will affect the workload of probation departments in various State courts.

The final commentor, a representative of a family support enforcement organization, wrote in support of 5 CFR 581.305(g) which clarifies the fact that there is no requirement under part 581, that parties bringing garnishment actions against the Federal Government comply with the provisions of either the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.

The second notice of proposed rulemaking was published on September 6, 1988 (53 FR 34305). These amendments were made necessary by the enactment of the Federal Employees' Retirement System Act of 1986, Public Law 99-335 (June 6, 1986), which provided, among other things, for contributions from the salaries of Federal employees for the Thrift Savings Fund. Because all contributions to the Thrift Savings Fund, including Government contributions, are subject to garnishment in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 8437(e), the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board has recommended that Thrift Savings Fund contributions be excluded in determining the obligor's "aggregate disposable earnings". See 5 CFR 581.105(e). The Board's recommendation has been adopted in these amendments.

OPM received only one substantive written comment in response to the second notice of proposed rulemaking. The comment was from a Federal agency and expressed support for the proposed amendment.

E.O. 12291, Federal Regulation

I have determined that this is not a major rule as defined under section 1(b) of E.O. 12291, Federal Regulation.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that these regulations will not have significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because their effects are limited primarily to Federal employees.

Accordingly, OPM is amending 5 CFR part 581 as follows:

PART 581—PROCESSING GARNISHMENT ORDERS FOR CHILD SUPPORT AND/OR ALIMONY

1. The authority citation for part 581 is revised to read as follows:

Authority: 42 U.S.C. 659, 661-662; 15 U.S.C. 1673; 5 U.S.C. 8437; E.O. 12105.

2. Section 581.101 is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.101 Purpose.

Section 659 of title 42 of the United States Code, as amended, provides that moneys, the entitlement to which is based upon remuneration for employment, due from, or payable by, the United States or the District of Columbia to any individual, shall be subject, as if the United States or the District of Columbia were a private person, to legal process brought for the enforcement of such individual's legal obligations to provide child support and/or make alimony payments. Section 666 (a)(1) and (b) of title 42 of the United States Code requires States to enact laws mandating the use of procedures for the withholding from income of amounts payable as support. The purpose of this part is to implement the objectives of sections 659 and 666 (a)(1) and (b) as they pertain to the executive branch of the Government of the United States.

3. Section 581.102, is amended by revising paragraphs (d), (e), (f)(1)(iii) and (g), and adding paragraph (f)(1)(iv) to read as follows:

§ 581.102 Definitions.

(d) Child support means periodic payments of funds for the support and maintenance of a child or children, and, subject to and in accordance with State or local law, includes, but is not limited to, payments to provide for health care, education, recreation, clothing, or to meet other specific needs of such a child or children. Child support also includes attorney's fees, interest, and court costs, but only if these items are expressly made recoverable as child support under a decree, order, or judgment issued in accordance with applicable State or local law by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Alimony means periodic payments of funds for the support and maintenance of a spouse or former spouse, and, subject to and in accordance with State or local law, includes, but is not limited to, separate maintenance, alimony pendente lite, maintenance, and spousal support. Alimony also includes attorney's fees, interest, and court costs, but only if these items are expressly made recoverable as alimony under a decree, order, or judgment issued in accordance with applicable State or local law by a court of competent jurisdiction. This term does not include any payment or transfer of property or its value by an individual to his or her spouse or former spouse in compliance with any community property settlement, equitable distribution of property, or other division of property between spouses or former spouses. (See instead 5 U.S.C. 8345(j) and 5 CFR part 831, subpart Q.)

(1) * * *

(iii) An authorized official pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or pursuant to State or local law; or

(iv) A State agency authorized to issue income withholding notices pursuant to

State or local law or pursuant to the requirements of section 666(b) to title 42 of the United States Code; and

(g) Legal obligation means an obligation to pay alimony and/or child support that is enforceable under appropriate State or local law. A legal obligation may include current as well as past due alimony and/or child support debts depending on the law in the jurisdiction from which the legal process was issued.

4. In § 581.103, the introductory text of paragraph (a) is republished, and paragraphs (a)(23), (a)(23)(iv), and (c) are revised to read as follows:

§ 581.103 Moneys which are subject to garnishment.

(a) For the personal service of a civilian employee obligor:

(23) Moneys due for the services of a deceased employee obligor, including:

(iv) Retroactive pay as provided for in section 5344(b)(2) of title 5 of the United States Code; and

(c) For obligors generally. (1) Periodic benefits, including a periodic benefit as defined in section 428(h)(3) of title 42 of the United States Code, title II of the Social Security Act, to include a benefit payable in a lump sum if it is commutation of, or a substitute for, periodic payments; or other payments to these individuals under the programs established by subchapter II of chapter 7 of title 42 of the United States Code (Social Security Act) and by chapter 9 of title 45 of the United States Code (Railroad Retirement Act) or any other system, plan, or fund established by the United States (as defined in section 662(a) of title 42 of the United States Code) which provides for the payment of:

- (i) Pensions;
- (ii) Retirement benefits;
- (iii) Retired/retainer pay;
- (iv) Annuities; and
- (v) Dependents' or survivors' benefits when payable to the obligor;

(2) Refunds of retirement contributions where an application has been filed;

(3) Employee contributions and Government contributions to the obligor's Thrift Savings Fund account in accordance with section 8437(e) of title 5 of the United States Code;

(4) Amounts received under any Federal program for compensation for work injuries; and

(5) Benefits received under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act.

(6) Exceptions. Remuneration would not include:

(i) Any payment as compensation for death, including any lump sum death benefit under any Federal program;

(ii) Any payment under any Federal program established to provide "black lung" benefits;

(iii) Any payment by the Department of Veterans Affairs as pension; or

(iv) Any payment by the Department of Veterans Affairs as compensation for a service-connected disability or death, except any compensation paid by the Department of Veterans Affairs to a former member of the Armed Forces who is in receipt of retired or retainer pay if such former member has waived a portion of his/her retired pay in order to receive such compensation. In this case, only that part of the Department of Veterans Affairs payment that is in lieu of the waived retired/retainer pay is subject to garnishment. Payments of disability compensation by the Department of Veterans Affairs to an individual whose entitlement to disability compensation is greater than his/her entitlement to retired pay, and who has waived all of his/her retired pay in favor of disability compensation, are not subject to garnishment under this part.

5. In § 581.104, paragraphs (b), (c), and (f) are revised to read as follows:

§ 581.104 Moneys which are not subject to garnishment.

(b) Payments or portions of payments made by the Department of Veterans Affairs pursuant to sections 501-562 of title 38 of the United States Code, in which the entitlement of the payee is based on non-service-connected disability or death, age, and need;

(c) Refunds and other payments made in connection with overpayments or erroneous payments of income tax and other taxes levied under title 26 of the United States Code;

(f) Veterans' educational assistance payments under section 1651 et seq. of title 38 of the United States Code;

6. In § 581.105, the introductory text and paragraphs (a) are revised, the introductory text of paragraph (b) is republished, paragraphs (b)(3) and (b)(4) are revised, paragraph (b)(5) is added, and paragraph (e) is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.105 Exclusions.

In determining the amount of any "moneys due from, or payable by, the United States" to any individual, there shall be excluded amounts which:

(a) Are owed by the individual to the United States, except where the obligor's debt is for child support and the amount owed the United States results from an income tax lien or levy under section 6331 of title 26 of the United States Code;

(b) Are required by law to be deducted from the remuneration or other payment involved, including, but not limited to:

(3) Amounts mandatorily withheld for the United States Soldiers' and Airmen's Home;

(4) Fines and forfeitures ordered by a court-martial or by a commanding officer; and

(5) Amounts deducted for Medicare;

(e) Are deducted as normal retirement contributions, not including amounts deducted for supplementary coverage. For purposes of this section, all amounts contributed under sections 8351 and 8432(a) of title 5 of the United States Code to the Thrift Savings Fund are deemed to be normal retirement contributions. Amounts withheld as Survivor Benefit Plan or Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan payments are considered to be normal retirement contributions. Except as provided in this paragraph, amounts voluntarily contributed toward additional retirement benefits are considered to be supplementary; or

7. In § 581.201, paragraph (b) introductory text is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.201 Agent to receive process.

(b) The head of each governmental entity shall submit to the Office of the General Counsel, Office of Personnel Management, 1900 E Street NW., Washington, DC 20415, for publication in Appendix A to this part, the following information concerning the agent(s) designated to accept service of process:

8. In § 581.202, paragraph (c) is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.202 Service of process.

(c) Where it does not appear from the face of the process that it has been brought to enforce the legal obligation(s) defined in § 581.202(d) and/or (e), the process must be accompanied by a certified copy of the court order or other document establishing such legal obligation(s).

9. In § 581.203, paragraph (a)(3) is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.203 Information minimally required to accompany legal process.

(a) ***
(3) Employment number, social security number, Department of Veterans Affairs claim number, or civil service retirement claim number;

10. In § 581.305, the introductory text of paragraph (a) is republished; paragraphs (a) (4) and (5) are revised; paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) are redesignated as (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) respectively; paragraph (a)(6) is redesignated as paragraph (b) and is revised; paragraph (c) is revised, and a new paragraph (h) is added to read as follows:

§ 581.305 Honoring legal process.

(a) The governmental entity shall comply with legal process, except where the process cannot be complied with because:

(4) It does not comply with the mandatory provisions of this part; or

(5) An order of a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining or suspending the operation of the legal process has been served on the governmental entity.

(b) Where notice is received that the obligor has appealed either the legal process or the underlying alimony and/or child support order, payment of moneys subject to the legal process shall be suspended; i.e., moneys shall continue to be withheld, but these amounts shall be retained by the governmental entity until the entity is ordered by the court, or other authority, to resume payments or otherwise disburse the suspended amounts. However, no suspension action shall be taken where the applicable law of the jurisdiction wherein the appeal is filed requires compliance with the legal process while an appeal is pending. Where the legal process has been issued by a court in the District of Columbia, a motion to quash shall be deemed equivalent to an appeal.

(c) Under the circumstances set forth in § 581.305 (a) or (b), or where the governmental entity is directed by the Justice Department not to comply with the legal process, the entity shall respond directly to the court, or other authority, setting forth its objections to compliance with the legal process. In addition, the governmental entity shall inform the party who caused the legal process to be served, or the party's representative, that the legal process will not be honored. Thereafter, if litigation is initiated or threatened, the entity shall immediately refer the matter to the United States Attorney for the district from which the legal process issued. To ensure uniformity in the executive branch, governmental entities which have statutory authority to represent themselves in court shall coordinate their representation with the United States Attorney.

(h) A failure by the party bringing the garnishment action to comply with the provisions of the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (URESA) or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act by itself shall not be a valid basis for a governmental entity to refuse to comply with legal process.

11. In § 581.306, paragraph (c) is revised to read as follows:

§ 581.306 Lack of moneys due from, or payable by, a governmental entity served with legal process.

(c) In instances where an employee obligor separates from his/her employment with a governmental entity which is presently honoring a continuing legal process, the entity shall inform the party who caused the legal process to be served, or the party's representative, and the court or other authority that issued the legal process, that the payments are being discontinued. In cases where the obligor has retired, or separated and requested a refund of retirement contributions, or transferred, or is receiving benefits under the Federal Employee's Compensation Act, and where this information is known by the entity, the entity shall provide the party with the designated agent for the new disbursing governmental entity. If the employee obligor will be employed in the private sector and the governmental entity knows the name and/or address of the new employer, the governmental entity will provide the party with this information.

12. Section 581.307 is added to read as follows:

§ 581.307 Compliance with legal process requiring the payment of attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs.

Before complying with legal process that requires withholding for the payment of attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs, the governmental entity must determine that the legal process meets both of the following requirements:

(a) The legal process must expressly provide for inclusion of attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs as (rather than in addition to) child support and/or alimony payments;

(b) The awarding of attorney fees, interest, and/or court costs as child support and/or alimony must be within the authority of the court, authorized official, or authorized State agency that issued the legal process. It will be deemed to be within the authority of the court, authorized official, or authorized State agency to award attorney fees as child support and/or alimony if such order is not in violation of or inconsistent with State or local law, even if State or local law does not expressly provide for such an award.

13. Appendix A to part 581 is revised to read as follows:

Appendix A To Part 581—List of Agents Designated To Accept Legal Process

Cost of Living Allowances and Post Differentials (Nonforeign Areas)

AGENCY: Office of Personnel Management.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is revising its regulations on the nonforeign area cost-of-living allowance (COLA) and post differential authorized by 5 U.S.C. 5941. This amendment is necessary to bring the terminology into conformance with current usage, clarify certain provisions, modify the method used to calculate rates, and ensure that the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act are met or exceeded.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 15, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Barry E. Shapiro, (202) 632-7471.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 2, 1989, OPM published proposed regulations in the Federal Register (54 FR 23664) providing that interested persons could file comments through August 31, 1989. We received over 100 written comments from employees, employee groups, agencies, members of Congress, and attorneys and experts hired by employee groups.

Several changes and clarifications were made to the proposed regulations in response to the comments received. These changes are discussed in the sections below.

General Comments. Some individuals interpreted the proposed rule as a proposal to reduce existing allowance rates. The changes in methodology we are adopting are designed to improve the measurement of living costs used to set the allowance rates, and are not intended either to reduce or increase allowance rates.

Many commenters remarked that the proposed rule was too vague and imprecise to make informed comment possible. We disagree. OPM received extensive, detailed, and carefully-reasoned comments from over 100 interested parties. This final rule is intended to serve as the vehicle for publishing a broad methodology to establish a sound basis for conducting future reviews of allowance rates. As noted in § 591.205(d) of the final rule, OPM fully intends to go through another round of rule-making in which we will describe the details of a particular year's living cost survey and the proposed rates that result from it. We expect to repeat this process each time we propose to adjust allowance rates.

Some commenters remarked, especially with respect to § 591.205, that the regulations should be expressed in simpler language which can better be understood by the individuals directly affected by the COLA program. In addition to clarifying several specific points in response to comments, we have reworded portions of § 591.205 in response to these concerns.

One employee commended OPM for establishing different allowance rates for employees with commissary and exchange privileges and those shopping at retail outlets.

Comments on COLA Methodology. Several commenters expressed concern that the proposed rule would not actually measure relative living costs, but would merely measure how individuals allocate their budgets. This comment reflects an interpretation of the term "budget" which OPM did not intend. We have revised § 591.205 to eliminate the term "budget," and to emphasize that OPM will first determine the cost of an appropriate market basket
