Persons interested in being placed on a mailing list for future rulemaking actions should request a copy of Advisory Circular No. 11–2A, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Distribution System, which describes the applicable procedure.

Background

When Amendment No. 91–211 (Docket No. 18334) was published in the Federal Register on August 18, 1989 (54 FR 34282), certain text of the existing rule (formerly § 91.70) was inadvertently omitted. To restore the text to its intended form, it is necessary to correct this error.

This final rule amends § 91.117 (effective August 18, 1990) by adding language which was inadvertently omitted from the text published on August 18, 1989. This amendment does not alter the substantive provisions of the former § 91.70(a), and which the FAA intended to recodify as § 91.117(a) without change.

Need for Immediate Adoption

Since this amendment only corrects a publication error and does not substantively amend agency regulations, this action is a minor editorial amendment in which the public would not be particularly interested. Accordingly, I find that notice and public comment procedures are unnecessary. I further find that good cause exists for making the amendment effective in less than 30 days to eliminate ambiguity in published agency regulations as soon as possible.

Conclusion

This amendment is an editorial correction. The action incorporates language that was inadvertently omitted in a final rule which reorganized and realigned the general operating and flight rules to make the rules easier to use. The FAA has determined that this regulation is not major under Executive Order 12291. In addition, the FAA certifies that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act. This regulation is not considered significant under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979).

Food and Drug Administration

21 CFR Part 177

[Docket No. 88F–0325]

Indirect Food Additives; Polymers

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is amending the food additive regulations to provide for the safe use of triisopropanolamine as an optional adjuvant substance in the production of olefin polymers intended for use in contact with food. This action is in response to a petition filed by DuPont Canada, Inc.

DATES: Effective August 24, 1990; written objections and requests for a hearing by September 24, 1990.

ADDRESSES: Written objections to the Dockets Management Branch (HFA–305), Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4–62, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lawrence J. Lin, Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition (HFF–335), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202–472–5690.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In a notice published in the Federal Register of October 25, 1988 (53 FR 43043), FDA announced that a food additive petition (FAP 8B4104) had been filed by DuPont Canada, Inc., c/o Keller and Heckman, 1150 17th St. NW., Washington, DC 20036, proposing that § 177.1520 Olefin polymers (21 CFR 177.1520) be amended to provide for the safe use of triisopropanolamine as an optional adjuvant substance in the production of olefin polymers intended for use in contact with food.

FDA has evaluated the data in the petition and other relevant material. The agency finds that the adjuvant additive is specifically intended for use as a Zeigler-Natta-type catalyst deactivator and antioxidant in the production of olefin polymers. The agency also concludes that the proposed food additive use is safe, and that 21 CFR part 177 should be amended as set forth below.

In accordance with § 171.1(h) (21 CFR 171.1(h)), the petition and the documents that FDA considered and relied upon in reaching its decision to approve the petition are available for inspection at the Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition by appointment with the information contact person listed above. As provided in 21 CFR 171.1(h), the agency will delete from the documents any materials that are not available for public disclosure before making the documents available for inspection.

The agency has carefully considered the potential environmental effects of this action. FDA has concluded that the action will not have a significant impact on the human environment, and that an environmental impact statement is not required. The agency's finding of no significant impact and the evidence supporting that finding, contained in an environmental assessment, may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch (address above) between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Any person who will be adversely affected by this regulation may at any time on or before September 24, 1990, file with the Dockets Management Branch (address above) written objections thereto. Each objection shall be separately numbered, and each numbered objection shall specify with particularity the provisions of the regulation to which objection is made and the grounds for the objection. Each numbered objection on which a hearing is requested shall specifically so state. Failure to request a hearing for any particular objection shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on that objection. Each numbered objection for which a hearing is requested shall include a detailed description and analysis of the specific factual information intended to be presented in support of the objection in the event that a hearing is held. Failure to include such a description and analysis for any particular objection shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing on the objection. Three copies of all documents shall be submitted and shall be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. Any objections received in response to the regulation may be seen in the Dockets Management Branch between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

29 CFR Parts 1910 and 1926

Occupational Exposure to Asbestos; Approval of Collection of Information Requirements

AGENCY: Occupational Safety and Health Administration; Labor.

ACTION: Final rule; approval of collection of information requirements.

SUMMARY: On June 20, 1986, OSHA published revised standards governing occupational exposure to asbestos, tremolite, anthophyllite and actinolite in general industry and construction (51 FR 22612). On February 2, 1988, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit upheld the standard in most respects but remanded the case to OSHA on several issues. On February 5, 1990, OSHA published a partial response to the court's remand including promulgating several new regulatory provisions. The Agency sought clearance from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) on certain information gathering provisions contained in the February 5, 1990 response (55 FR 3724). OSHA has received paperwork clearance for these provisions under OMB clearance numbers 1218-0133 and 1218-0134, respectively. The OMB clearance expires on April 30, 1993.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 24, 1990.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. James F. Foster, Office of Information and Consumer Affairs, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room N3637, Washington, DC 20210; telephone (202) 523-8151.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 20, 1986, OSHA published revised standards governing occupational exposure to asbestos, tremolite, anthophyllite, and actinolite in general industry and construction. In these standards, OSHA reduced the 8-hour time-weighted average (TWA) permissible exposure limit (PEL) to 0.2 f/cc, and established other protective provisions. On February 2, 1988, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia upheld most aspects of the standard but remanded the case to OSHA on several issues.

On February 5, 1990 (55 FR 3724), OSHA published a response on certain remand issues including requiring employers to make smoking control program material available. At the same time, OSHA submitted the paperwork provisions in these requirements to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance, although the Agency believed that the new provisions did not impose any substantial information gathering burden.

OMB has reviewed the collection of information requirements in the expanded asbestos standard in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (PRA), 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., and 5 CFR part 1320. On May 2, 1990, OMB approved the information collection provisions for three years, the maximum period authorized by the Paperwork Reduction Act. All information requirements contained in 29 CFR 1910.1001(j)(5)(iv)(C) and 29 CFR 1926.58(k)(4)(iii) have received OMB paperwork clearance under OMB clearance numbers 1218-0133 and 1218-0134, respectively. The OMB clearance expires on April 30, 1993.
