Immigration And Naturalization Service

[AG Order No. 1680–93]

Termination of Designation of Lebanon Under Temporary Protected Status Program

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice terminates the Attorney General's designation of Lebanon under the Temporary Protected Status program provided for in section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act). Accordingly, eligible aliens who are nationals of Lebanon, or who have no nationality and who last habitually resided in Lebanon, will lose their eligibility for Temporary Protected Status.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The termination of the Temporary Protected Status designation for Lebanon is effective April 9, 1993.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kathryn A. Kazalonis, Senior Immigration Examiner, Immigration and Naturalization Service, room 7223, 425 I Street, NW, Washington, DC 20536, telephone (202) 514–5014.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under section 244A of the Act, as amended by section 302(a) of Public Law 101–649 and section 304(b) of Public Law 102–232, (8 U.S.C. 1254a), the Attorney General is authorized to grant Temporary Protected Status in the United States to eligible aliens who are nationals of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General, or who have no nationality and last habitually resided in that state. The Attorney General so designates a state, or a part thereof, upon finding that the state is experiencing ongoing armed civil strife, environmental disaster, or certain other extraordinary and temporary conditions.

On March 21, 1991, the Attorney General designated Lebanon for Temporary Protected Status for a period of 12 months. 56 FR 12746. On January 20, 1992, the Attorney General extended the designation of Lebanon under the Temporary Protected Status program for an additional 12 months until March 28, 1993. 57 FR 2931.

Section 244A(b)(3) of the Act requires the Attorney General to review, at least 60 days before the end of the initial period of designation or any extended period of designation, the conditions in a state designated under section 244A(b)(3). The section also requires the Attorney General to determine whether the requirements for such designation continue to be met, and to terminate a state's designation when the Attorney General determines that those requirements are not met. In this notice, the Attorney General terminates the designation of Lebanon, pursuant to section 244A(b)(3) of the Act.

Notice of Termination of Designation of Lebanon Under Temporary Protected Status Program

By the authority vested in me as Attorney General under section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and pursuant to sections 244A(b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act, I find, after consultation with the appropriate agencies of the United States Government, that the extraordinary and temporary conditions found to exist in Lebanon on March 21, 1991, and on January 20, 1992, are not presently in existence. The United States embassy in Beirut reports that the security situation for Lebanese citizens is steadily improving. The Lebanese government's amnesty law specifically protects Lebanese citizens from prosecution for virtually all actions taken during the war years, and the majority of Lebanese go about their daily activity without hindrance. While the few persons who might still encounter difficulties in Lebanon due to their affiliations could apply for asylum, we believe that Temporary Protected Status is no longer appropriate for Lebanese citizens in general.

Accordingly, it is ordered that the designation of Lebanon for Temporary Protected Status is terminated effective 60 days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register.

Dated: January 27, 1993.

Stuart M. Gerson,

Acting Attorney General.
